

NOVEMBER 20, 2016 OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

"We are celebrating today the feast of Christ the King. And I do not go outside my role as a priest when I say that if anyone saw Christ's kingdom in terms of a political program he would not have understood the supernatural purpose of the faith, and he would risk burdening consciences with weights which have nothing to do with Jesus, for his yoke is easy and his burden is light. Let us really love all men; let us love Christ above all; and then we cannot avoid loving the rightful freedom of others, living in harmony with them."
(St. Josemaria Escriva)

FEED THE HUNGRY IN THIS YEAR OF MERCY: St. Joseph Parish will once again be serving Thanksgiving Dinner on November 24th, from 12:00 noon until 1:30 p.m. and we need your help! This dinner serves Pickaway County residents in need, including senior citizens, handicapped, unemployed, and those who would otherwise be alone during the holidays. Volunteers are needed for two shifts, both to serve the dinner in the Hall and to deliver dinners: 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., and 11:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. We also need the donation of desserts. To give your time, call Lisa McKeivier at (740) 474-3571. Leave a message and she'll call you back. If you know anyone who would benefit from these Thanksgiving dinners, please have them call the Parish Office to make a reservation or sign up for delivery!

GRATITUDE: Kathy Winter, manager of Elizabeth's Hope Pregnancy Resource Center in Circleville, writes: "Everyone at St. Joseph, thank you all very much for the awesome baby blankets that you donated to Elizabeth's Hope! What a blessing for us and our mothers! We even decided to give away about 1/3 of them to a Christian Pregnancy Resource Center in Washington Courthouse that needed blankets. I love it when we share and work with other Pregnancy Resource Centers and Pro-Life organizations. It's great to get ideas from each other and use our strengths to glorify God! All of us at Elizabeth's Hope are extremely grateful for your prayers and continued support! Blessings!"
